

Spend 9 weeks in beautiful San Diego! The International Summer Session combines 4 weeks of university preparation classes with another 5 weeks of university courses at UC San Diego.

During the first 4 weeks, you will have a rigorous schedule of classes at the UC San Diego English Language Institute, covering the following subjects:

- Analytical Reading and Critical Response
- Discussion and Fluency for University Success
- University Lecture and Note-Taking Skills
- Public Speaking

In the final 5 weeks, you will take two UC San Diego classes (8 units), available in nearly all UC San Diego academic departments. Each UC San Diego course is the full curriculum that is normally offered in a 10-week quarter, so two classes in 5 weeks is a full-time study load.

Enrollment in UC San Diego classes begins on April 24, 2017. However, you may preview the available courses for 2017 at:
