

Study Legal English for Business in one of the most innovative cities in the world.

The Legal English for Business program is suitable for students who have high-intermediate to advanced levels of English and are:

- studying or working in the business or law fields
- interested in improving their English through the study of business law topics
- interested in gaining a better understanding of American business law practices

Tuition: $2,500 USD

International Student Service fee: $140

UCSD Extension medical insurance: $180

Books and Materials: about $200

Contact: ipmarketing@ucsd.edu

This program features:

- a total of 80 program hours, 20 hours per week
- mastery of legal and business vocabulary/expressions for speaking and writing
- effective oral and written communication skills
- focus on skills for various business law scenarios (legal correspondence, interviewing a client, negotiating an agreement, etc.)
- expert guest speakers on selected areas of business law
- certificate of completion with satisfactory academic achievement in all courses

Study topics may include:

- company law
- contracts and contract formation
- real property law
- transnational commercial law
- consumer protection
- intellectual property
- alternative dispute resolution
- employment law
- competition law

Program dates: July 31-August 25, 2017